

Affidavit for Gifting Corporate Stock

INSTRUCTIONS FOR GIFTING STOCK

Before gifting your corporate stock, please read the following instructions to understand the procedure and the consequence of gifting your stock:

- A Tanadgusix (TDX) Corporation shareholder can gift stock to a child, grandchild, greatgrandchild, a niece, a nephew, a brother, or a sister.

Note: This includes children legally adopted into your family, provided the adoption occurred before such children were 18 years of age and you are able to furnish the required substantiating documents. Not included are stepchildren (and the stepchildren of your children or grandchildren), and stepbrothers and stepsisters who have not been legally adopted into your family.

- By law, the individual receiving the gifted stock must be Alaska Native or a descendant of a Alaska Native and related to the shareholder giving the gift of stock.

Native – A citizen of the United States who is a person of one-fourth or more Alaska Indian (including Tsimshian Indians not enrolled in the Metlakatla Indian Community), Eskimo, or Aleut blood, or a combination thereof.

Descendant of a Native – A lineal descendant of a Native or of an individual who would have been a Native if such individual were alive on December 18, 1971; or an adoptee of a Native or of a descendant of a Native, whose adoption (a) occurred prior to his or her majority, and (b) is recognized at law or in equity.

- You may gift all your stock or just a portion of your stock to one or more recipients. Gifts must be made in whole shares.

Fractional share gifts are not allowed.

- If you gift to a minor (someone under 18 years of age), a custodian must be named to manage the stock until the minor is of legal age. If you do not nominate a custodian, one will be appointed according to the priorities set in state law.

- The Affidavit For Gifting form must be signed in the presence of a notary.

- If you are gifting to a minor the Consent To Appointment As Custodian form must be signed in the presence of a notary.

- The transfer of stock is irrevocable. Once you have gifted stock, you cannot change your mind. You lose all rights to the stock that you gift, and you cannot get the stock back.

- Once the stock is transferred, dividends and distributions associated with the transferred stock will belong to the person who receives the shares.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR GIFTING TDX CORPORATION STOCK

- In order to document that the persons to whom you wish to gift stock are such relatives, you must provide TDX Corporation certified copies of the appropriate birth certificate(s) to establish the relationship between you and the recipient(s) of the gift of stock. If you do not have a copy, contact the Vital Statistics or Social Service department in the state where the recipient was born.
